MANY WANT OFFICE

A Full Set Will be Chosen Shortly.

Difference of Opinion Which Board Is to Elect—Many Candidates Anticipated.

PLENTY OF PIE "A-COOKIN'"

A great deal of interest will in a short time be manifested in the races for city offices to be held by election by the council, or appointment. All the offices not filled at the recent election have to be filled next month or in January, with but few possible exceptions.

Here are some of those that the general council will have to fill:

CITY PHYSICIAN.
CITY WRIGHER.
STEWART OF CITY HOSPITAL.
LICENSE INSPECTOR.
STREET INSPECTOR.
MARKET MASTER.
BACK TAX COLLECTOR.
SUPERINTENDENT OF ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT.
SEWERAGE INSPECTOR.

There must be elected a mayor pro tem and president of the council, and a president of the board of aldermen. Councilman Ed Hannon is certain to be president of the council if he will consent to serve, which will make him mayor pro tem, and Alderman-elect Charles Reed will doubtless be president of the board of aldermen.

The fire and police commissioners have to choose police chief, captain and lieutenant, in addition to all the police officers and to the chief and assistant fire chief and all the firemen, a patrol wagon driver and possibly others.

The cemetery committee that is appointed by the presidents of the boards will elect a sexton of Oak Grove.

City Attorney T. B. Harrison will later appoint a public printer, and Mayor Yeiser has a number of boards to appoint or will have later on. He will appoint a public library board, which will dispose of some little patronage such as librarian, janitor, etc., and he will appoint a board of public works if the two legislative boards pass an ordinance authorizing them.

It is seen that there will be "something doing" in municipal political circles, and it is probable that those who did the most work for the ticket will get the preference in giving out the best jobs.

Some of the newly elected councilmen and aldermen say they have heard of no candidates for some of the offices. A few, however, are announced.

It is understood Mr. Frank Smedley will apply for the position of market master; that Messrs. L. P. Raser and Will F. Robertson want to be sewerage inspectors; there are half a dozen for license inspector, and that there will in due time be candidates enough for every office.

One thing that is not yet decided, however, is when these officers are to be elected, and whether the present council or the new boards shall elect.

Heretofore the council has elected in December and if this rule is adhered to now, these officers will all be chosen by the present board before it goes out of office, instead of by the new boards, which do not go into office until the first meeting in January. There seems a possibility for precipitating a lively fight over the privilege of electing these city officers. The terms of the present officials expire this month, but the law allows them to hold on until their successors are elected and qualify.

Some of the council, especially those who go out of office, seem to think that the present boards should elect, and others that the new boards should elect. It remains to be seen which will get to do it, as members of both the present board, and the board-elect, have plenty of friends they would be glad to put into the offices.

PRAYER SERVICES—The usual prayer service will be held at the First Presbyterian church tonight at 7:30.

A REAR END SMASH

Freight Trains Collide Near Scottsburg Last Night.

Two Men Hurt, Both of them Residing in Paducah—Cars Damaged.

NO ONE FATALLY HURT.

There was a rear end collision on the Louisville division of the L. C. this morning at 4:18 o'clock when two freight trains crashed together and injured a flagman and conductor and badly wrecked a caboose and engine.

The trains were the third and second sections of freight No. 154, en route to Louisville. At Scottsburg, just a few miles north of Princeton, the third section crashed into the second. Flagman J. G. Brown, second section of the L. C. hotel, city, was badly injured. Conductor Keys, of the second section, was so badly injured and although unconscious for a time after the accident, is not thought to be seriously injured. He lives on Tennessee street Paducah.

The wrecker was ordered out of Paducah immediately after the accident and it required over four hours of the hardest work on the part of the wrecking crew to clear the main line.

Conductor A. B. Kays and Flagman Brown were both in the caboose when struck and Keys suffered a cut over the eye and his lips were badly injured. He will be brought to the hospital this afternoon. Brown is not thought to be so badly injured as at first thought, according to the late reports. His forehead received a bad cut and bruise and his jaw bone was broken. He was also bruised about the body but the railroad physicians say he will recover and will be brought here this afternoon. His sister went up at noon.

Engineer Rafferty was on the third section and with his fireman jumped and saved themselves from injury.

The wreck was caused by the third section man coming up on the second section which had not put out a flag, it is said. The second section it is reported, was running slowly in order to give the first section time to back out of Scottsburg when the third section ran into it.

NO COAL YET

MANY APPLICATIONS ARE RECEIVED IN PADUCAH FOR IT, HOWEVER.

Many people come to the city hall daily for coal, but the city has no charity coal at present. Usually the city has from a thousand to 1,500 bushels of charity coal, and will probably have later on this year, but thus far Mayor Yeiser has had to turn down all applications received.

Route Agent C. M. Fisher, of the Southern Express company, was in the city today on business.

HE WILL RESIGN SOON

Supt. Hatfield Will Quit at Next Meeting of the Board.

It Is Reported Prof. Evans Will Apply for the Position at Once.

MAY BE OTHER APPLICANTS

It is understood on good authority that Superintendent O. E. Hatfield, of the public schools, will tender his resignation to the board of education at its next meeting the first Tuesday in December, which will be December 1.

The rumored resignation is being talked of by both members of the present board and by members of the new board who have been approached by friends of prospective candidates for the position to succeed Superintendent Hatfield.

Superintendent Hatfield, it will be remembered, had a disagreeable time last spring when charges were preferred against him by former teachers in the schools but he was exonerated and re-elected by the present board of education.

In the Democratic primary in September the issue in the race for school trustees was whether to retain Superintendent Hatfield or not, and the anti-Hatfield candidates were nominated by the Democrats.

In November the anti-Hatfield candidates thus nominated were elected, and will go into office next month and it is supposed that as the relations between the board and superintendent might possibly be strained until the end of the term in June, Superintendent Hatfield has decided to resign.

It is understood that Prof. Charles Evans, of Marion, president of the First district educational association, is a candidate to succeed Superintendent Hatfield and Prof. C. A. Norvel, of the city, may also be one. There may be others before the board chooses Superintendent Hatfield's successor. It is supposed that the new board will be permitted to elect the new superintendent, should Superintendent Hatfield's resignation be accepted.

STAR ROUTES.

CONTRACTS MUST ALL BE IN BY DEC. 1.

All bids for the Star route mail service must be in Washington by December 1, and those desiring to compete for it should send their bids to Postmaster F. M. Fisher at once. The service includes a route from here to Benton and another from Paducah to Lovelace and the screened wagon service to the Union depot. Only those who live on the routes can enter the competition. The contract is given to the lowest bidder.

Miss Ora Morehead, of Springfield, Tenn., who has been visiting Mrs. Pat O'Brien returned home at noon today.

A SWINDLER ABROAD

Impersonates a Pension Agent and Collects Money.

Yard Man Assaulted By a Discharged Negro at the L. C. Last Night.

NEWS ABOUT THE CITY HALL

The police on the South Side have been notified of the operations of a shrewd negro swindler, who has been going about claiming to be a pension agent, and at the home of Elvira Wimberly, an aged colored woman of Mechanicsburg, collected $2.

The man, according to the description furnished the police, is rather old and has a long beard. He tallies with the description left at police headquarters of a man giving the name of Ross Collins, of Ballard county, who is alleged to be wanted for similar conduct, but whom the police have never been able to apprehend. The officers on every beat have been instructed to keep a lookout for him.

Ed Farris was arrested last night on a charge of robbing M. W. Fox, the old man who claimed to be the police yesterday that he had been robbed of his watch and a new pair of shoes he was carrying about with him. The watch was found at the Klondike saloon, where it had been pawned by McCormick, it is claimed, and the shoes at Ackerman's, the second hand man. Bob McCormick, alias "Sticks" McCormick, and Ed Farris are alleged to have robbed the old man after giving him knockout drops. Ford claims that they were drinking out of a bottle and gave him a drink out of it, and when he came to he was back of the Klondike. McCormick got away but Farris, who is a well known ship carpenter, was arrested and today waived examination and was held in the sum of $300.

McCormick was later arrested, having come to the city hall and surrendered to Patrol driver John Austin. He will be given a hearing tomorrow.

John O'Brien, George W. Reynolds and Ed. Fortean, white, were arrested this afternoon for alleged shop lifting and the police think they have made a good catch in the men. Edward Kelley, a youth, was arrested later and admitted having been with the party. The officers will put him through the sweating process and think they will secure information enough to hold the men on more serious charges. They had been operating on lower second street, it is alleged, and stole pants and other articles from the clothing stores. When brought into Judge Sanders room the men by some clever scheme attracted the attention of the police to the street and the two came near escaping.

Eligo Potter, colored, reported to the city hall today that last night he left his bicycle in front of 733 Washington street while he went in a moment to speak to the man residing there, and when he came outside again the machine had been stolen. He says he was absent only a minute, and has no idea now the thief could have gotten away with it so quickly. The police have been unable to find the missing wheel.

Charles Walston, colored, of the Ohio street, is badly wanted for assaulting Yardman Brantley, of the Illinois Central. It is claimed that Walston had been discharged and blamed Brantley for it, striking him with a lantern last night and painfully but not seriously injuring him. A warrant will be issued and Walston will probably be caught.

MARRIED AT LONE OAK—Mr. Stephen A. Culp, a prominent young farmer in the county who had lately taken to railroad, and Miss Rosa L. Bowland, of the county, will this afternoon be married at Lone Oak by Rev. Rouse. They secured a license this morning and their many friends will be pleased to learn of the marriage.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Will be Celebrated as Usual in Paducah.

Stores Will Close Early—Church Services in the Forenoon and Evening.

FOOTBALL IN AFTERNOON.

Thanksgiving will probably be more generally observed in Paducah this year than ever before. The banks and most of the business houses will be closed, and there will be only one mail delivery at the postoffice in the morning. The rural carriers will not make their trips. The afternoon newspaper will get out noon editions there will be no session of the courts, and business of all kinds will be practically suspended tomorrow afternoon, on account of the great national holiday.

Thanksgiving services will be held at three of the local churches. At the Broadway Methodist church a union service at 10:30 a. m. will be held, including the First Christian, the First Cumberland Presbyterian, the First Baptist and the Broadway Methodist congregations. Rev. George O. Bachman, of the Cumberland church will preach. At the First Presbyterian church services will be held at 10:45, by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Caw. At Grace Episcopal church Rev. John W. Sykes the rector, will hold services at 10 o'clock. In all these services offerings will be made for the poor. At the First Cumberland Presbyterian church in the evening at 6:30 o'clock, a supper will be served to the members, followed by a church service. Services will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Lutheran church, on South Fourth street.

Rev. G. W. Perryman will preach at the Second Baptist church tomorrow night.

In a social way there will also be many Thanksgiving attractions. A Thanksgiving german will be given at the Palmer House tomorrow evening, by some of the young society men. Tomorrow afternoon and evening, Harry Berensford in the "Professor's Love Story" for a matinee and night performance at the Kentucky will attract many society people. This afternoon a Thanksgiving reception is being given at the Home of the Friendless, and Mrs. George B. Hart is entertaining in honor of her guest, Miss Mabel Parviance, of Huntington, Ind.

In the line of sports a genuine Thanksgiving article will be given in the football game at the league grounds at Wallace Park, tomorrow afternoon between the West Kentucky college team of Mayfield and a Paducah team.

MYSTERIOUS FIND.

GOLD CROWN WITH TWO TEETH PICKED UP IN A FIELD.

Mr. D. B. Jeffries, a prominent merchant of Colliersville, this county, came to the city this morning with a gold crown and two teeth picked up in a field on the Moore farm near Colliersville by Mr. John Weithoff, who was hunting.

Those in the country who inspected the find thought it must be some relic of ancient times, but when shown to a dentist here today he said it was modern work, and did not seem to have been worn much. There is considerable pure gold moulded around the two teeth, and one side shows where it was broken off.

The question now arises how the crown came to be in the field. It seems impossible that the wearer could have broken it off and lost it, and it is believed that a skeleton may be found somewhere in the vicinity, and a search will probably now be made for it.

RESIGNS HIS POSITION—Mr. George Dipple has resigned his position with the American Express company, and will probably remain in the city and accept a better position.

POSTMISTRESS IS HANDY WITH THE GUN

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow received information from the sheriff of a little town in Texas which caused him immediately to order a postoffice inspector to visit the place.

According to the sheriff's letter the citizens of the little town in Texas would like to have the postmistress "toned down." He explains that the presiding genius of the office has undertaken to improve the manners of the residents of the town, which he admits are somewhat ragged from disuse. But the means adopted to attain this praiseworthy end are considered rather harsh.

The postmistress will not permit any citizen of the town to enter the office with his hat on, and when the mayor or the sheriff or some more humble resident is a trifle forgetful and strolls up to the counter with his head covered the postmistress enforces her desire with a brace of "Colt's 45s."

"We don't set up any claim that our manners are all they should be," says the sheriff, "but we'd like to be reasoned with and helped along. The postmistress here is a worthy woman, all right, and there ain't a thing against her character, but she certainly is rude and hasty.

"One day last week, the mayor being some flushed up and careless, refused to remove his hat and bow, on asking for the official mail, whereupon his hat was shot off and he was left the postoffice so swiftly and undignified that it told against the standing of the town.

"There's another thing we don't think is fair. The postmistress won't let niggers and greasers come in the office under any consideration. We ain't overfond of niggers and greasers ourselves, but it is sure discommoding for the leading citizens to have to go to the postoffice personally to get the mail just because this lady don't like to see anything but a gentleman.

"We don't like to appear fault finding and picaresque where a lady is concerned, but this one I'm talking about is sure arbitrary and abrupt, and we'd like to have her toned down some."

LATE CASUALTIES

There is a Decrease for the Quarter.

There is an Increase for the Entire Year.

The accident bulletin just issued by the interstate commerce commission covers the railroad accidents in the United States for the three months ending June 30, and also completes the statistics of accidents for the fiscal year. As compared with the preceding quarter, the accidents reported show a decrease, the number of killed in train accidents being 230 and the number injured 2629, as against 300 and 2834, respectively, in the preceding quarter. Other kinds of accidents to employees and passengers not the result of collision or derailment bring the total number of casualties up to 12,806, as against 12,308 in the preceding quarter; the total number of persons killed, however, being eighty-three less than in the preceding quarter.

The total number of employees killed in coupling and uncoupling during the quarter was 62, being 14 less than in the preceding quarter. The total number of collisions and derailments was 2605, of which 1405 were collisions and 1202 derailments, and of these 201 collisions and 126 derailments affected passenger trains. The damage to cars, engines and roadways by these accidents amounted to $2,476,934.

As compared with the preceding year, the bulletin discloses a large increase in the number of casualties. There were 3554 persons killed and 45,977 injured during the year, as against 2819 killed and 39,800 injured during the year preceding. This large increase is partially explained by the large increase in railroad traffic that has taken place during the last year, and the fact that there were more men at risk. The number of men employed in train service June 30, 1903, was 13 per cent greater than on June 30, 1902. There is also a good explanation of the increase to be found in the fact that the interstate commerce commission has been persistent in its insistence on full reports of all accidents from all railroads during the past year, and therefore accidents are much more fully reported at the present time than they were in past years.

SUSPICIOUS MAN

FOLLOWED A MACHINIST BUT HAD NO CHANCE TO HOLD UP.

The holdup artists are still playing their vocation, as Monday night a suspicious looking man followed Machinist Shaffer, who works at the Illinois Central shops at night, from the shops nearly to his home. Mr. Shaffer was not molested but feared he would be. The police are looking rather sharp for thieves and will arrest all suspicious characters.

NO INDICTMENT

Louisville Distiller Will Not be Prosecuted.

Not Enough Evidence to Justify a Bill Against Him.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 25.—The grand jury here refused to indict Charles Lemmon on the charge of detaining Mrs. Ada Stewart against her will at the Normandy Hotel Sunday morning. The grand jury was busy the entire morning with the investigation. Mrs. Stewart occupying considerable time with her testimony.

The young woman came to the court house this morning accompanied by Attorney Charles E. Day, of Morehead, who has been engaged by the girl's father, James Esterly, to assist in the prosecution of the case.

Mr. Day, who is the representative of Rowan county in the general assembly, declared that any intimation of the accused that the whole affair was a blackmail scheme, was absolutely false.

The reason no indictment was found that there was no evidence to corroborate the woman's story, and her testimony would have been sufficient.

CARS DERAILED

RAILROAD MEN CANNOT FIND WHAT CAUSED ACCIDENT.

Two freight cars were derailed on the curve track leading to the depot, at the local I. C. yard offices this morning. No cause for the derailment could be learned as the cars did not split the switch and there seems to have been nothing the matter with the trucks. The marks where the wheels left the track could plainly be seen and the yard men cannot understand what caused the cars to leave the rails. One car was turned completely over and the other left leaning on one side. It required some little time to right them as the wrecker was out on the road and the yard crews had to rig out a temporary wrecking outfit for the emergency.

DEATH IN THE COUNTY.

Mrs. Alice Marr, wife of Mr. Lynn Marr, of near Massao, this county, died this morning at 3:15 of typhoid fever. She had been ill for six weeks. Mrs. Marr was Miss Alice Rogers and was born in this county, 38 years ago. Besides her husband she left five children. She was a sister of Mr. Gus and Officer W. H. Rogers, the late Sheriff Tobe Rogers, and Miss Mary Rogers of this city. Another brother, Mr. J. H. Rogers and a sister, Mrs. J. W. Ogilvie, of the county also survive her.

The burial will take place tomorrow at a family cemetery near Massao.

Theatrical Notes.

The music of "Winsome Winnie," Jacobowsky's new opera is the best example of high class construction in that line since "Erminie."

Helen Prindiville who plays the role that made Maude Adams famous in Howard Kyle's revival of "Rose-ary," which will be here soon, is said to be the youngest leading woman in the United States. She is only eighteen years of age and is possessed with great personal charm and magnetism.

Mr. Hanly Ragan, special press representative of Al G. Fields' minstrel, is in the city today. Mr. Ragan says the show has had unprecedented success in the south and will come to Paducah November 30, larger and better than ever. Last year, owing to a severe illness in the hospital at Mobile, Ala., Mr. Field was not with the show. He is now entirely well and does the best work of his life.

"When Her Soul Speaks" will be seen at The Kentucky tonight with Miss Eva Mountford in the star role. The play is described as a powerful human story, a beautiful love story runs throughout, and the dramatic scenes are relieved by a bright vein of comedy. The company is a very strong one, being headed by the author of the play, Mr. Elmer Grandin, an actor of splendid reputation.

Nat M. Willis, supported by a company headed by Susanna Rocamora, and assisted by the brightest and cleverest of the lilliputian actors on the stage of today as well as fifty more intelligent farceurs will be the attraction in this city on Tuesday next in Messrs. Broadhurst & Currie's happy musical melange "A Son of Rest," which has scored most auspiciously in New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, as well as some of the smaller cities.

Politics, they say, make strange bed fellows. How about the show business? Of the six big theatrical syndicates: S. F. Nion started life as a notion salesman. J. F. Zimmerman was a bear. Marc Klaw, who once lived in Paducah, a lawyer. A. L. Erlanger served his apprenticeship as an usher. Al Hayman as a financial clerk. Charles Frohman was with a minstrel show. These six gentlemen represent the greatest wealth in the theatrical profession.

It is announced that the famous twin comedians, "The Lyman Twin Brothers" will appear at The Kentucky Saturday matinee and night in their latest and greatest musical comedy success "At the Races." This excellent company with its beautiful scenic equipment, numerous wonderful mechanical and electrical effects together with one of the strongest casts today in musical comedy, comprising a pretty chorus, wonderful dancers and clever comedians producing original novelties will give one of the most pleasing entertainments of the season.

The strongest dramatic attraction in the country tomorrow matinee and night, Mr. Harry Beresford, in a special engagement of J. M. Barrie's delightful romance, "The Professor's Love Story," is announced for at our play house. No play on the stage of today more cleverly depicts the power of love or more beautifully illustrates the charm of friendship's golden bonds, and no player reaches the sympathies of his audience with a more delicate touch and a greater display of natural talents than does Harry Beresford. The motif of "The Professor's Love Story" is based on a humane subject and permits the genius of Mr. Beresford to strike that well spring of emotion—the heart—in a most sympathetic manner.

The New Nixon Theatre, Pittsburg, will be the nearest approach to the Grand Opera House, Paris, yet attempted. It will seat 2,300, is constructed of steel and iron throughout, with white marble, granite and terra cotta front. The cost of construction will be over $600,000. An innovation of the theatre will be the accessibility of the balcony without steps. The house being 122½ feet wide with a slight incline of 3-4 to the foot, allows for the grades bringing spectators to their seats without any unpleasant and inconvenient steps. The architect, Benj. H. Marshall, of Chicago, has guaranteed under forfeiture of $5,000 to seat the first man who purchases a balcony seat for that theatre in an automobile and will do so.

DAILY THOUGHT.

The space between a man's ideal and the man himself is his opportunity.—Margaret Deland.

THE CANAL A CERTAINTY.

Senator Morgan might have saved considerable time and effort by gracefully accepting his removal as chairman of the inter-oceanic canal, instead of drifting into a tiresome discussion of the Panama question, and punctuating his remarks with copious but futile criticisms of the President and the administration.

Senator Morgan and his Democratic colleagues ought to know by this time that President Roosevelt and the Republican administration do not care what the Democrats say or do in the canal question. The canal is to be built, and there will be little delay in starting work. Those who imagine that this government has acted hastily, unwisely or unjustly are entitled to so believe, but in the parlance of the street, it "will out no ice." The men put in charge of public affairs by a majority of the people, are doing the job as they think it should be done and as they want it done, and that is all there is to it.

In regard to the canal treaty, the St. Louis Globe Democrat briefly gives the facts thus:

"The treaty which has just been signed at Washington by Secretary Hay and Panama's special envoy, Philippe Bunau Varilla, brings the waterway within measurable distance. There is not the faintest reason to doubt the acceptance of the treaty. It is referred to the government of Panama for action, and ratification is expected from that quarter quickly. Then it will go to the Senate at Washington. It is entirely safe to predict that that body will give its sanction promptly. The treaty is on the same general lines with that framed recently by Colombia's representative at Washington and Secretary Hay, and which Colombia rejected, except that it is a little more favorable to the United States. The money consideration is the same as in the other convention, with this important difference that the United States gets a broader strip of territory, between eight and ten miles wide on each side of the canal, than was stipulated for in the Colombian agreement, and this is to be given to us in perpetuity. Everything that the United States could reasonably ask in connection with the canal is granted to us in the compact."

Thanksgiving. Then the city chap will buy them all up and put them in cold storage so he can get his own price Christmas. The only way for the poor man to get even is to buy him an old rooster or a goose.

Local wisecracks say the haze over the sun seen recently here was caused by forest fires. When they read the explanation from Austin, Tex., however, that it is from volcanic eruptions, we shall doubtless be told by them to put out our pans and buckets and catch a few pounds of pulverized volcano.

The state school superintendent in Nebraska has declared in favor of ignoring the supreme court's decision that the Bible is not to be read in the public schools. If Nebraska is anything like Kentucky he might simply wait a few days and the supreme court would probably reverse itself.

The Democrats are welcome to all the political capital they can make out of the postoffice frauds. If the Republican party were responsible for or approved of rascality, the alleged rascals would still be serenely robbing the people, instead of being indicted and disgraced.

No wonder the law is sometimes an object of derision. In Fulton if a man "totes" a pistol on the north side the least penalty is $25 and ten days in jail, while if he carries one on the south side, which is in Tennessee, he can get off with a fine of as little as $1.

Young women who travel alone should fight shy of strange men, and sporty individuals should not get gay with unsophisticated country girls. If you don't believe it, ask the man—the one who is in trouble at Louisville.

There is considerable complaint about vicious dogs in Paducah and it has been suggested that some of them be killed. The only trouble in such matters is that it is always the other fellow's dog we want killed.

With young Mr. Rockefeller in New York and an educated canine in Chicago doing stunts as Sunday school teachers, Mrs. Nathan and Dowie have gone into partial eclipse.

What next? St. Louis is now after the hospital and asylum grafters. It is getting to be a continuous performance in Missouri.

PROBABLY W. D.

COUPLE LEFT THE CITY AND FATHER WAS TOO LATE TO INTERFERE.

Last night a telephone message was received at police headquarters from Lone Oak, this county, stating that Miss Etta Potts had eloped with Mr. Charles Leffingwell, formerly of the city but now of Viaden, Miss., and asking the police to notify her father, Frank Potts, who was in town, and have him intercept them.

The police did not know that Potts was in the lookout for drunkenness until early this morning, when they told him of the telephone message and released him in order that he could intercept them. He was too late however, as he could not find them, and it is supposed they went to Paris, Tenn., on an early train, and were married. They informed their friends before they left the city that they would go there and marry. From there they will go to Mississippi to reside. Mr. Leffingwell was formerly in the employ here of the Paducah Furniture company, and his bride is an attractive and popular young lady.

A DIAGNOSIS OF KENTUCKY.
Kentucky's hills are full of rills,
And all the rills are lined with stills,
And all the stills are full of gills,
And all the gills are full of thrills,
And all the thrills are full of kills.

You see, the feudists dot the hills,
And camp along the little rills,
Convenient to the busy stills,
And thirsting for the brimming gills,
And when the juice his system fills,
Each feudist whoops around and kills.

Now, if they'd only stop the stills,
They'd cure Kentucky's many ills;
Men would be spared to climb the hills
And operate the busy stills.
However, this would mean more gills,
And that, of course, would mean more thrills.
Resulting in the same old kills,
So all the hills and rills and stills,
And all the gills and thrills and kills,
Are splendid for the coffin mills.
And make more undertaker's bills.

IN THE LOCAL COURTS

Ed Farris Held Over in Police Court This Morning.

Few Cases in Judge Husbands' Court—No Courts Tomorrow.

BARBER'S COURT.

An unusual case was that of M. H. Boren, of this county, against M. V. Bynum, of Graves county, which was dismissed in Justice Barber's court yesterday afternoon. It seems Boren's sons traded Bynum a horse and $5 for a mule. The trade did not suit their father, who owned the horse, and he filed suit before Justice Gholson for recovery of the horse. One objected to Justice Gholson trying the case and it was taken before Justice Young, who did not suit the other one. They finally agreed on Justice Barber, who yesterday had to dismiss the case as there was a defect in the papers. The two litigants then got together and agreed to settle their differences by "swapping back" which they did. The value of the horse and mule together was $50, and the amount of attorneys' fees and court costs incurred by both is $100, to say nothing of the $5 paid to boot when the trade was made, which is to be retained by Bynum.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The case of Gillen against Gillen was stricken from the docket. In the case of O. A. Clark against C. E. Gridley and others for a breach of contract, the amended petition was dismissed and the case transferred to the equity docket.

The case of S. B. Hughes, trustee, against W. B. McPherson and others, was continued.

The case of Rudolph, administrator, against the I. C. railroad, was dismissed. This is one of the cases appealed to federal court and dismissed there without prejudice and rebrought in circuit court. Judge Husbands now dismisses all such cases, the court of appeals having decided that cases dismissed without prejudice in federal court must be brought there again, if at all.

A judgment for sale was filed in the cases of Joseph Muller against W. H. Muller and W. H. Muller against Theresa Kierce.

A judgment for divorce was filed in the case of Beatrice C. Hudson against F. G. Hudson.

POLICE COURT.

Ed Farris, robbery, waived examination and held in the sum of $300.

Will Mack, concealed weapons, dismissed. He had a razor. He and Mattie Moore were charged with fighting and he was fined $20 and she dismissed. Roy Van Dyke was fined $10 and costs for a breach of the peace.

James Magner, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Lucien Posten, colored, charged with grand larceny, and Charles Ewing alias Posby, colored, charged with housebreaking, were granted continuances until Friday.

John Henderson and Albert Rice, colored, were charged with a breach of the peace. The former was fined $1 and the case against the other continued.

LICENSED TO MARRY.

Amos Parker, of Ragland, age 26 and Celia Rosier, of Lone Oak, age 25, have been licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both.

COUNTY COURT.

On motion of R. D. Harper the estate of Jake Harper was ordered into the hands of the public administrator.

THIS HOLDS THE RECORD.

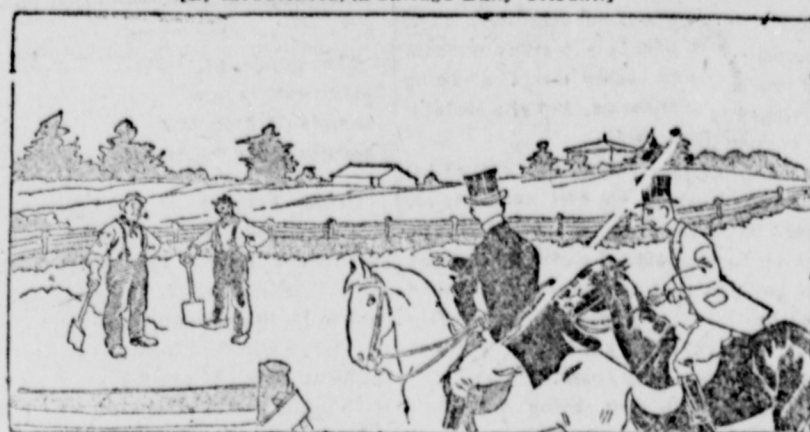

Southern Men Tell of Some Wonderful Railroad Traveling.

A group of railroad men were talking about the fastest rides they ever experienced, says the New Orleans Times-Democrat. One man in relating his experiences, said: "Across byways and through marshes we rushed like mad. When we reached the Rigolets the most remarkable thing I ever saw took place. The train was traveling so fast it sucked the water up behind it as it rushed across the trestle, and I could hear the fishes groan as we flew over this neck of the gulf. Most remarkable thing I ever saw in the way of fast runs."

"I am glad you reminded me of that run," said another member of the group. "I had forgotten the incident. I can vouch for all you say, for I was on the back end of the last coach, and the water which was sucked in behind the train by the vacuum almost washed me overboard, but I held on all right, and when we made the crossing at the waters had receded, I picked up on the platform of the rear

THE WORST YET

Vandals go on a Glass Smashing Expedition.

Windows and Other Property Demolished at Several Caldwell St. Homes.

Some one tried to break all the glass in the windows and doors of the residences on Caldwell street last night.

The windows in the N. O. and St. L. flag station at the 11th street crossing was smashed out first and later the residence of Mr. John Katterjohn further out, was bombarded and a rock thrown at the door. It struck below the door and did not break the glass. Mrs. McDaniel's house was next visited and the glass shattered in the window. Mr. W. A. Flowers' house was also visited and a window smashed out. The rock went into the room, shattered a fine hanging lamp and spent itself finally against the wall.

Mr. Katterjohn tracked the person or persons to the depot but there lost track of them. There is no clue to their identity. The vandalism was perpetrated about 11 o'clock last night just after the snow had fallen.

LEGS CUT OFF

COLORED LABORER MEETS WITH FATAL ACCIDENT AT LA CENTER.

John D. Henry, a colored laborer employed at La Center by the I. C. railroad, met with a fatal accident this morning while trying to leave a moving train. He and a gang of laborers are employed cutting down a hill and the work train is sidetracked some distance from the depot at La Center, and he had boarded the Cairo train, which passed Paducah at 9:30, at the depot to ride to the switch. When the switch was neared he got down on the steps and tried to jump off but fell and went under the wheels of the moving train. Both legs were mashed off and he died at 2 p. m. today.

THE STRIKE IS OFF

Men Ordered to Work on the Chicago Railroad.

Cars Again Running and Neither Side Claims the Victory.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 25—The Chicago street car strike, which cost about $2,000,000, has ended, an agreement was ratified at noon, and the men were ordered back to work.

Negotiations had been pending for some time and the settlement of the trouble is gladly received.

Car service was at once resumed when the men were ordered back to work, and among those who are happiest, apparently, are the strikers themselves.

The wage question has been left open to arbitration. Both sides have made concessions, and neither claims the victory.

FIRST SNOW

OFFICIAL RECORD ONE AND A HALF INCHES—SOON MELTED.

Many people were surprised today when they arose to find the ground covered with snow. It melted rapidly and those who saw visions of a real old time Thanksgiving "like our grandmothers used to make" were destined to disappointment, because the snow was wet and sticky and soon began to disappear and to leave only mud, slush and water.

The sight of "the beautiful" was very pleasing so long as it lasted, however, and was the first time Paducahans had seen snow in many months.

It began snowing about 10 o'clock last night and evidently the fall did not last long. Observer Borneman's record shows that the fall in this vicinity was an inch and a half.

NO CONTEST

Time for Filing One Has Now Passed by.

There was Never any Danger of one, it is Stated on Good Authority.

A great many people daily ask what has become of the talk of contest of Capt. M. W. Johnson for the office of city treasurer, to which Col. J. J. Dorian was elected in November. The fact is that no contest has been filed in circuit court, and none will be filed, as it is now too late.

The law specifies that such contests shall be filed within ten days after the completion of the canvass by the election commissioners. The commissioners completed their work the 11th of November, and the ten days have now passed.

Col. Dorian was never in the least alarmed over the reports of contest, and it is stated on good authority that there was never any intention of Capt. Johnson's filing one. Col. Dorian has a clear title to the office, and was fairly elected. He is one of the most popular men in Paducah, and the office he holds is about as good as that of mayor, as it is for four years, pays the same salary, $1800 a year, and has none of the responsibility of the office of mayor.

TURKEYS HIGH

THEY SELL FOR ABOUT FIFTEEN CENTS A POUND TODAY.

Turkeys were selling for about 15 cents a pound today, which is quite an increase over the prices which usually prevail in Paducah. At other times and in former years they sold for 10 and 12½ cents a pound. Farmers claim that the demand is so great that they are justified in increasing the price, and others say that the Chicago market has made the price what it is and that they go by the Chicago market. Others say the farmers and poultry men have purposely held the turkeys back to put up the price. It is likely that the turkeys left over will be sold cheap enough in a few days and will as usual be bought up by speculators who will keep them in cold storage until Christmas and then realize a neat profit from them.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Catarrah Cured.
All phases of catarrh, acute or chronic,
are promptly and permanently cured
it is through its operation upon the nervous system that Peruna has attained such a world-wide reputation as a sure and reliable remedy for all phases of catarrh wherever located.

Mr. Jas. O. Morin, 1179 Ontario street,
Montreal, Canada, writes:

"Peruna is certainly a great catarrh remedy. It cured me of catarrh of the head and I gladly endorse it. Canadians are peculiarly afflicted with this disease and for years the doctors have tried to overcome it with elixirs, powders and pills, but Peruna has solved the question and since the medicine has been estab-

been cured of catarrh."—Jas. O. Morin.

WILL LOSE $200,000

Capt. Norton's Bequest to Baptists is Reduced.

No Particulars of the Settlement Ma-can be Secured From Those Concerned.

DUE TO LAWS OF CALIFORNIA.

Dispatches from Louisville today state that by a private settlement made between the executors of the will of the late Capt. W. F. Norton, formerly of Paducah, who died in California several months ago, and his heirs, the Baptist Orphan's Home will lose about $200,000 of the large bequest Capt. Norton made the institution in his will.

For some time past there have been rumors of a prospective settlement, and the above is given out from a reliable source. All concerned refuse to make public the terms of the settlement.

Capt. Norton was the last of his immediate family, and left a fortune of a million or more, about $600,000 or more of which was to go to the Baptist Orphan's Home. A few friends and relatives received money, but the bulk of the fortune was left to the Baptist institution.

It was reported a short time after his death that under the laws of California only a certain per cent. of an estate can go to charity, and as the testator had announced that place as his home and lived and died there, his will had to be probated under the laws of California, and the $200,000 is said to be a part of that intended for the Baptist home, which cannot now go to it, and which will go to his heirs instead. A committee was sent to California to investigate and it is supposed the settlement was a result of this report.

A number of Paducah people may have received a portion of the $200,- 000, through the reported settlement, but nothing is known of the terms of the settlement except that there seems to be an agreement not to divulge its provisions.

THE DIFFERENCE.

COFFEE USUALLY MEANS SICK-NESS BUT POSTUM ALWAYS MEANS HEALTH.

Those who have never tried the experiment of leaving off coffee and drinking Postum in its place and in this way regaining health and happiness can learn much from the experience of others who have made the trial.

One who knows says: "I drank coffee for breakfast every morning until I had terrible attacks of indigestion producing days of discomfort and nights of sleeplessness. I tried to give up the use of coffee entirely but found it hard to go from hot coffee to a glass of water. Then I tried Postum Food Coffee.

"It was good and the effect was so pleasant that I soon learned to love it and have used it for several years. I improved immediately after I left off coffee and took on Postum and am now entirely cured of my indigestion and other troubles all of which were due to coffee. I am now well and contented and all because I changed from coffee to Postum.

"Postum is much easier to make right every time than coffee for it is so even and always reliable. We never use coffee now in our family. We use Postum and are always well."

AN ULTIMATUM

Will be Sent to the Strikers
Today.

If They Do Not Accept New Men
Will Be Secured at Once.

The strike at the Paducah Cooper-
age company plant in Mechanicsburg is still on but the management stated this afternoon that today the men will be given an ultimatum and if this is not accepted, new men will be secured.

The men struck several months ago on account of being made to do certain class of work and an agreement was reached and put down in writing.
The company now claims the men have gone back on their own proposition.

There are about sixty men out and if an adjustment is not reached today the company will send out for new men. The men claim they are made to do work that is not in the contract.
Only joiners and pinners are out but this necessitates a partial shut down of the plant.

ALWAYS TIRED NEVER RESTED

To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired, never-rested feeling—a weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always-tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, strength and energy, and the hundreds of little ailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system is nourished and refreshing sleep comes to the tired, never-rested, body.

RELATED TO QUEEN VICTORIA.

FOUND ASPHYXIATED IN HER ROOM IN NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 25.—Mrs. Kate Sutton, 64 years old, who always claimed relationship to the Guelph family, and who greatly resembled in appearance Queen Victoria, was found dead in her room in the home of Mrs. Selina Malone, No. 199 South First street Williamsburg. The gas was turned on, but not lighted and death had been by asphyxiation.

Mrs. Sutton told a remarkable story of herself which is repeated by all who knew her. She said that she was a Guelph as was Queen Victoria, and that she quarreled with her father in England thirty-five years ago and came to America. Since then she said she was too proud to return home or even ask the royal favor which her family could show her. Her physical and facial resemblance to Queen Victoria was noted by every one, and in this she took a great pride. In recent years she has supported herself by washing windows and doing odd work that she could get, but in the last few months she had been unable to work. It is believed she had become despondent.

It was ascertained today that Nordenskjold's vessel, the Antarctic, was crushed in the ice February 12 of this year. Contrary to the first report, the Charcot expedition will not be stopped, but will engage in scientific research. The Francois, with the Charcot party on board, will sail as soon as possible for Graham's Land.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Completely Cured Me.

Lucky the sufferer from nervous diseases whose symptoms are as plainly marked as those of Mr. Powell, as given below. Too often the symptoms are mistaken for some derangement of the digestive organs and the wrong treatment administered and continued until too late to make a change beneficial. Too many doctors make the mistake of trying to cure the symptoms instead of the disease. Dr. Miles' Nervine goes to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the nervous system, puts life and vigor into every muscle, every fibre, every tissue, every nerve cell. There is nothing so good for the nerves as Nervine.

"About four years ago I suffered from pains around my heart, and after the least exertion it would palpitate in such a manner as to cause me much distress. I had a feeling of oppression in my chest, was nervous, could not sleep, lost my appetite and flesh, had pains in back and shoulder, my food did not digest and I could not eat anything without causing distress. My feet were cold at times and I became exceedingly weak and all run down. I tried ten different doctors, one or two of whom gave me temporary relief. Finally I saw that Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine was advertised to cure sufferers from such nervous disorders as mine and procured a bottle. I am now permanently cured and I cannot say enough for the Restorative Nervine."—H. L. POWELL, Henderson, N. C.

The SKY PILOT

By RALPH CONNOR

Author of
"The Man From Glengarry"
"Glengarry School Days" and "Black Rock"

Copyright, 1899, by FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY.

I kept her talking of the Duke as we walked back to the gate, watching her face the while. It was not beautiful; it was too thin and the mouth was too large. But the teeth were good and the eyes, blue black with gray rims, looked straight at you—true eyes and brave, whether in love or in war. Her hair was her glory. Red it was, in spite of the dental, but of such marvelous, indescribable shade that in certain lights, as she rode over the prairie, it streamed behind her like a purple banner—a most confusing and bewildering color, but quite in keeping with the nature of the owner.

She gave her pinto to Joe and, standing at the door, welcomed me with a dignity and graciousness that made me think that the Duke was not far wrong when he named her "Princess."

The door opened upon the main or living room. It was a long apartment, with low ceiling and walls of hewn logs chinked and plastered and all beautifully whitewashed and clean. The tables, chairs and benches were all homemade. On the floor were magnificent skins of wolf, bear, musk ox and mountain goat. The walls were decorated with heads and horns of deer and mountain sheep, eagles' wings and a beautiful breast of a loon, which Gwen had shot and of which she was very proud. At one end of the room a huge stone fireplace stood radiant in its summer decoration of ferns and grasses and wild flowers. At the other end a door opened into another room, smaller and richly furnished with relics of former grandeur.

Everything was clean and well kept. Every nook, shelf and corner was decked with flowers and ferns from the canyon.

A strange house it was, full of curious contrasts, but it fitted this quaint child that welcomed me with such gracious courtesy.

CHAPTER X.

OWEN'S FIRST PRAYERS.

IT WAS with hesitation, almost with fear, that I began with Gwen. But even had I been able to foresee the endless series of exasperations through which she was destined to conduct me, still would I have undertaken my task. For the child, with all her willfulness, her temper and her pride, made me, as she did all others, her willing slave. Her lessons went on, brilliantly or not at all, according to her sweet will. She learned to read with extraordinary rapidity, for she was eager to know more of that great world of which the Duke had told her such thrilling tales. Writing she abhorred. She had no one to write to. Why should she cramp her fingers over these crooked little marks? But she mastered with hardly a struggle the mysteries of figures, for she would have to sell her cattle, and "dad doesn't know when they are cheating." Her ideas of education were purely utilitarian, and what did not appear immediately useful she refused to trifle with. And so all through the following long winter she vexed my righteous soul with her willfulness and pride. An appeal to her father was idle. She would wind her long, thin arms about his neck and let her waving red hair float over him until the old man was quite helpless to exert authority. The Duke could do most with her. To please him she would struggle with her crooked letters for an hour at a time, but even his influence and authority had its limits.

"Must I?" she said one day in answer to a demand of his for more faithful study; "must I?" And, throwing up her proud little head and shaking back with a trick she had her streaming red hair, she looked straight at him from her blue gray eyes and asked the monosyllabic question, "Why?" And the Duke looked back at her with his slight smile for a few moments and then said in cold, even tones:

"I really don't know why," and turned his back on her. Immediately she sprang at him, shook him by the arm and, quivering with passion, cried: "You are not to speak to me like that, and you are not to turn your back that way!"

"What a little princess it is," he said admiringly, "and what a time she will give herself some day!" Then he added, smiling sadly: "Was I rude, Gwen? Then I am sorry." Her rage was gone, and she looked as if she could have held him by the feet. As it was, too proud to show her feelings, she just looked at him with softening eyes, and then sat down to the work she had refused. This was after the advent of the Pilot at Swan Creek, and, as the Duke rode home with me that night, after long musing he said with hesitation: "She ought to have some religion, poor child; she will grow up a perfect little devil. The Pilot might be of service if you could bring him up. Women need that sort of thing. It refines, you know."

"Would she have him?" I asked. "Question," he replied doubtfully. "You might suggest it."

Which I did, introducing somewhat clumsily, I fear, the Duke's name. "The Duke says he is to make me good!" she cried. "I won't have him. I hate him, and you too!" And for that day she disdained all lessons, and when the Duke next appeared she greeted him with the exclamation, "I

"I found him in the creek."

won't have your old Pilot, and I don't want to be good, and—and you think he's no good yourself," at which the Duke opened his eyes.

"How do you know? I never said so!"

"You laughed at him to dad one day."

"Did I?" said the Duke gravely. "Then I hasten to assure you that I have changed my mind. He is a good, brave man."

"He falls off his horse," she said, with contempt.

"I rather think he sticks on now," replied the Duke, repressing a smile.

"Besides," she went on, "he's just a kid. Bill said so."

"Well, he might be more ancient," acknowledged the Duke, "but in that he is steadily improving."

"Anyway," with an air of finality, "he is not to come here."

But he did come, and under her own escort, one threatening August evening.

"I found him in the creek," she announced with defiant shamefacedness, marching in the Pilot half drowned.

"I think I could have crossed," he said apologetically, "for Louis was getting on his feet again."

"No, you wouldn't," she protested. "You would have been down into the canyon by now, and you ought to be thankful."

"So I am," he hastened to say, "very. But," he added, unwilling to give up his contention, "I have crossed the Swan before."

"Not when it was in flood."

"Yes; when it was in flood, higher than now."

"Not where the banks are rocky."

"No—o!" he hesitated.

"There, then; you would have been drowned but for my lariat!" she cried triumphantly.

To this he doubtfully assented.

They were much alike, in high temper, in enthusiasm, vivid imagination and in sensitive feeling. When the Old Timer came in Gwen triumphantly introduced the Pilot as having been rescued from a watery grave by her lariat, and again they fought out the possibilities of drowning and of escape till Gwen almost lost her temper and was appeased only by the most profuse expressions of gratitude on the part of the Pilot for her timely assistance.

The Old Timer was perplexed. He was afraid to offend Gwen and yet unwilling to be cordial to her guest. The Pilot was quick to feel this, and soon after tea, rose to go. Gwen's disappointment showed in her face.

"Ask him to stay, dad," she said in a whisper. But the half hearted invitation acted like a spur and the Pilot was determined to set off.

"There's a bad storm coming," she said, "and, besides," she added triumphantly, "you can't cross the Swan."

This settled it, and the most earnest prayers of the Old Timer could not have held him back.

We all went down to see him cross. Gwen leading her pinto. The Swan was far over its banks and in the middle running swift and strong. Louis snorted, refused and finally plunged. Bravely he swam till the swift running water struck him, and over he went on his side, throwing his rider into the water. But the Pilot kept his head and, holding by the stirrups, paddled along by Louis' side. When they were half way across Louis saw that he had no chance of making the landing, so, like a sensible horse, he turned and made for the shore. Here, too, the banks were high, and the pony began to grow discouraged.

"Let him float down farther!" shrieked Gwen in anxious excitement, and, urging her pinto down the bank, she coaxed the struggling pony down the stream till opposite a shelf of rock level with the high water. Then she threw her lariat, and, catching Louis by the neck and the horn of his saddle, she held taut, till, half drowned, he scrambled up the bank, dragging the Pilot with him.
